GERMAN ARMY CONFRONTING ALLIES IN BELGIUM IS ON DEFENSIVE TODAY

AUSTRIAN FLEET BOTTLED

Officials Believe Germany Will be Very Hard Pressed From East
Very Soon by Russia.

(By United Press.)

London, August 17.—With a strong French forward movement into Alsace-Lorraine well in progress, the German army confronting the allies in Belgium stood on the defensive today.
The Germans were apparently waiting for the army in the south to signal its readiness, and then a battle that will have the longest front in history and will engage more participants can be looked for. The Germans are ready to strike in Belgium.

The situation was very tense. The official war bulletin was found less voluminous than usual. It dealt more with Alsace and ignored Belgium. One phase attracted attention. It was stated that the destructive effects of the allies artillery near Mulhausen was very great. This was taken to mean that English troops are now fighting alongside the French in Alsace-Lorraine as they are in Belgium.

The whereabouts of Sir John French is not known. Paris advices said "he left for the front" which means any point along the 250 miles of hostile territory where the Germans are massed. They also stated that Field Marshal French and General Joffre were co-operating.

The French war fleet has sunk one Austrian cruiser and ended the bombardment of the Montenegrin coast.
The British fleet in the Mediterranean is reported to have the main Austrian fleet bottled up in Pola.
But it is not believed the British fleet
can do much with the land fortifications there. All waters in that vicinity are mined.

Officials of the war office believe Germany will be hard pressed from the east very soon. Their information is that the appeal of the czar to the Poles has aroused enthusiasm throughout all Poland and that the Russians are ready for a swift offensive movement in both Germany and Austria.

PASSES EMERGENCY BILL

Senate Today Puts Through Ship
Registry Measure.

(By United Press.)

Washington, August 17.—The Senate today passed by 40 to 20 the "war emergency" ship registry bill in precisely the same shape it had been passed by the house. It had just previously rejected by the same vote
the conference report. The senate receded from all its amendments.

INVADERS MOVE ALONG SLOWLY

French Army is Advancing in Germany in Face of Most Determined Opposition.

CLASHES ALL ALONG LINE

Attacking Column is Reported as Taking German Base South of Mulhausen—Other Victories.

(By United Press.)

Paris, August 17.—The French army invading Germany is reported slowly but surely advancing in the face of most determined opposition.
All along the line of Alsace-Lorraine
the forces have clashed. The dead and wounded run into the thousands but the French war office in a series of official bulletins insists that the French success is continued.

While the fighting so far has been between the advance guards of the two armies, it has been most desperate in character. The French cavalry with their mountain artillery are declared to dominate the Upper reaches of the Vosges mountains. In addition the offensive movement
against Saarburg is being pushed.
One column the war office says, is at Abrosweiler six miles southeast of Saarburg while other columns are closing in on the city from the west and the North.

There is heavy fighting in Upper Alsace. The French attacking columns there are reported as taking the German advanced base south of Mulhausen. According to a very brief bulletin posted by the war offices, the French army operating south of Mulhausen, after shelling the German trenches, charged and carried them by storm. There was fierce hand-to-hand fighting in which the bayonet was freely used but the superior strength of the attacking column told and the Germans were routed. Their trenches are reported filled with dead and wounded. They were also forced to abandon several rapid fire guns to the French.

During the fighting French aviators dropped many bombs into the German trenches doing much execution. The French forces have now reoccupied most of the territory south of Mulhausen which originally was seized and later abandoned when the Austrian and German troops effected a junction near the Swiss border.

BELIEVES MOTIVES GOOD

(By United Press.)

Washington, Aug. 17.—President Wilson expressed himself today as satisfied with the good faith of the Japanese in their efforts to restore to China German stronghold of Kaiu Chau, and to preserve the integrity of China. Further than this, he would not go, declaring it to be one of the duties of neutrality to express no opinion regarding the Japanese ul-timum.

French Fleet Reported to be in Complete Control Today.

(By United Press.)

London, August 17.—The official war bureau today confirmed the sinking of a small Austrian cruiser
in the Adriatic by the French fleet and declared the French now dominate the Adriatic as far north as the gulf of Cattaro which is the best harbor in that sea. Earlier reports stated the French had sunk two Austrian ships and had driven two others away.

BRANDS REPORTS AS ABSOLUTE LIE

Karl H. on Wiegand, United Press

First Story From Germany.

FALSE REPORTS CIRCULATED

One of Most Cruel is That Socialistic Delegation in Reichstag Had Been Executed.

(Editors Note:

The first complete story of the events in Germany following the opening of the war reached New York
today from Karl H. Von Weigand, United Press staff correspondent in charge of the Berlin bureau. It was plain from its text that the story was held up by the British censor for forty-eight hours. It sets at rest many wild stories heretofore circulated in the United States regarding conditions in Germany.)

BY KARL H. ON WIEGAND.

The Hague, Holland, Aug. 17.— Cut off from communication with the world, Germany is meeting the problems of the war isolation and with determination. Because of the interruption of telegraphic and cable service the lines having been cut by the English, many utterly false reports have been circulated. As an evidence of how complete is the isolation, the death of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson was not known at the German capital when I left there Thursday night. And many of the stories solely circulated broadcast regarding happenings within Germany are absolutely false.

One of the most cruel is that the Socialistic delegation in the Reichstag has been executed—100 of them
—by the order of the kaiser because they participated in an anti-war demonstration. This story also said that Deputy Liebknecht, leader of the Socialists, was summarily shot by a firing squad after he had refused to join his regiment and that Rosa Luxemburg, whose stories of alleged cruelties to the German common soldier by his superior officers resulted in her arrest some months ago, had also been shot after a court martial.

These stories are absolute lies.
Not a single socialist has been shot.
Not one has been arrested. Liebknecht is fighting for the fatherland as are hundreds of thousands of other socialists. Eleven of the Socialist members of the Reichstag are at the front. The attitude of the party in the present crisis is best shown by the action of one of their most famous leaders who has been rested on This Charge.

Roscoe Ward will be given a hearing Tuesday morning before Squire deadly weapons. The charge was preferred by Fred Osborn, living west of the city. The Wards and Osborns have had considerable trouble of late over a lane between their occurred and Osborn alleges that Ward drew a revolver. The first trouble occurred between Berry Os-

SHE IS WELL KNOWN HERE

Miss Mary Moore of Richmond today began her duties as visiting nurse for the Society for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis of Rush county. She will act in that capacity permanently. It will be recalled that recently a nurse from the state association came here and made a careful analysis of the local situation. At that time it was stated that a visiting nurse for Rush county would in all probability be arranged for Rush county by the local society.

Miss Moore is well known here.
She has acted as a private nurse in various cases here in Rushville during the last two years. She was

ADMITS FORGING OF CHECK FOR $5

When Questioned by Prosecutor
Smith, Buena Vista Youth Says
He Passed Paper.

PAYS BACK MONEY; SET FREE

A young man named French, from near Buena Vista, admitted yesterday when cornered by Prosecutor Smith, that he was guilty of forging
a check at the Frank Wilson clothing store. The transaction occurred Friday. He gave a five dollar check made payable to George Moorehead and signed the name of J. D. Stewart. When the check went to the bank Saturday it was found that the name of John D. Stewart was forged.

At first French denied that he was the man who passed the check, but continued questioning brought out the facts. Mr. Wilson did not wish the boy prosecuted and let him go upon the payment of the five dollars.
The boy bought a neck tie and offered the check in payment. The boy was recognized on the streets yesterday afternoon following the ball game and was taken to the office of the prosecutor.

CAR DITCHED AS A TIRE EXPLODES

Charles Sweet and Son Albert Have Narrow Escape in Automobile Accident Sunday Afternoon.

NEAR FRED BELL'S FARM

Runabout Tears up 30 Feet of Rail Fence and Then Balances on Rails, With Mr. Sweet Under it.

Charles Sweet and son Albert of Tenth street had a most miraculous escape from serious injury or death yesterday afternoon when the two-passenger automobile driven by Mr.
Sweet ran into the ditch near the Fred Bell farm north of here, tore up about thirty feet of rail fence and finally ended its rampage by tilting
at an angle of forty-five degrees, with Mr. Sweet under it and preventing it from falling over on him.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thomas and daughter of North Perkins street and Mrs. Sweet were following Mr. Sweet and son in Thomas' touring car. The party was going to Raleigh and was to be joined there by other people, and the whole crowd was going to Springport to see the museum there.

Mr. Sweet was rounding a slight bend in the road when the left front tire blew out. This tended to pull the car to the left in the ditch. Mr.
Sweet struck at the throttle to throw off the gasoline, but missed it. He said he intended to make a wide swerve down into the ditch to keep the car right side up and then gradually get back on to the road. Mr.
Sweet says he made a mistake when he put his foot on the brake. This pulled the back wheels into the grass and then the car became unmanageable.

Mr. Sweet says that then the car went into the rail fence and that rails were flying in every direction.
He declares that by actual measurement thirty feet of fence was torn down. Furthermore, Mr. Sweet says that the left front wheel cut a furrow in the ground at the side of the road six inches deep just as if a plow had been run through the ground at that point.

When the automobile had run the gauntlet of the rail fence, it tipped over to the left at about an angle of forty-five degrees and just about balanced there. A shove either way would have sent it crashing to the ground. Mr. Sweet was thrown out to the left. He fell on his back and with his feet in the air, he was keeping the automobile from falling on him. His boy had been thrown out but was unhurt, had crawled out from under the rails.

Another remarkable thing about the mishap is that in all the ramblings of the automobile not a glass was broken. It is true that the two front tires were torn up and a rail ran into the radiator, but nevertheless, Mr. Sweet says, not a lamp was broken, nor was the windshield damaged. It took two men to pull the rail out of the radiator.

CARRIED REVOLVER.

Phillip Robbins was fined one dollar and costs by Mayor Bebout this morning on the charge of carrying concealed weapons. Robbins was arrested Saturday night on the streets. The police received a tip that he had a revolver and when searched
the police found it.

Miss Sylvia McFall of Arlington has returned home after a visit with relatives in this city.

MORE BOYS THAN GIRLS IN COUNTRY

Annual Report of County Superintendent George Completed Today Shows Excess of Fifty

TO STATE SUPERINTENDENT

Total Number of Pupils in Schools of County Last Year 3,712—Average Daily 3,119.

County Superintendent C. M.
George has just completed his annual statistical report. The report is made from the reports of the various township trustees and is submitted to the state superintendent of public instruction. The report is quite interesting. It covers all the schools in the county, including the high schools here and in Carthage.

The report shows that last year in the schools of the county there were just fifty more boys in attendance than girls. The boys totaled 1,881 and there were 1,831 girls. The total number of pupils was 3,712. There were seventy-eight colored pupils in the schools. The total daily attendance in all the schools was 3,119.

It cost the county $81,327.34 in salary for the 145 teachers employed.
The number of teachers last year
was larger by three than the year before. While this sum for teachers appear quite large, it is not considering that the total taxables in the county amounts to $20,849,250. The amount of taxables is taken from the assessors books and in no way represent the true property value.

Rush county continues to improve the school houses and the report shows that two new ones were erected at a total cost of $16,987. There are a total of fifty-seven school houses in the county, including those in Rushville. The estimated value of the school property is placed at $471,700 and in Rushville alone the property is estimated to be worth $138,000.

The report while of little value to the state superintendent gives some comprehensive figures and is required by law. The report should have been submitted Saturday but due to the fact that the Carthage report was not received on time Superintendent George was delayed in completing it.

JAPAN PREPARES FOR CERTAIN WAR

No doubt But That Ultimatum Delivered to Germany Will be Denied and Hostilities Will Start.

FLEET IS READY FOR ACTION

Note Demands Withdrawal of German Warships From Orient and Evacuation of Kiaochow.

(By United Press.)

Tokio, Aug. 17.—The government is preparing for war. The fleet is manned, ready for action. The army has been ready and several corps are ready to go on board the transports which are fully provisioned and have steam up. There is no doubt here that the ultimatum delivered to Germany will be denied and that immediate hostilities must follow.

The ultimatum, which has been transmitted to Berlin by a number of routes, demands the withdrawal of German warships from the Orient, or if not withdrawn that they be interned for the war, and the evacuation of Kiaochow. It gives Germany until Sunday, August 23 to begin such withdrawal and until September 15 to actually comply with the demand.

After the ultimatum was sent, Geo. W. Guthrie, the American ambassador was summoned to the palace by the Japanese foreign minister Takaaki Kato and the situation was presented to him. He was told the action of the Japanese government was in the interest of peace in the Orient. The Japanese position, Guthrie was informed, was that the presence of German warships in far eastern waters and the maintenance there of a German base, is detrimental to peace in the Orient inasmuch as trading vessels are always in danger of capture by the Germans.

Guthrie is instructed to emphasize to his government that Japan had no territorial designs herself. The German colonies she desires turned back to China. The foreign minister gave the most profuse assurances of Japan's friendship to the United States and declared that under no circumstances will anything be permitted that would in any way offend the government of the United States.

HALT IN FORWARD MOVEMENT MADE

German Infantry Remains in Position Today All Along Belgian Frontier in Irregular Line.

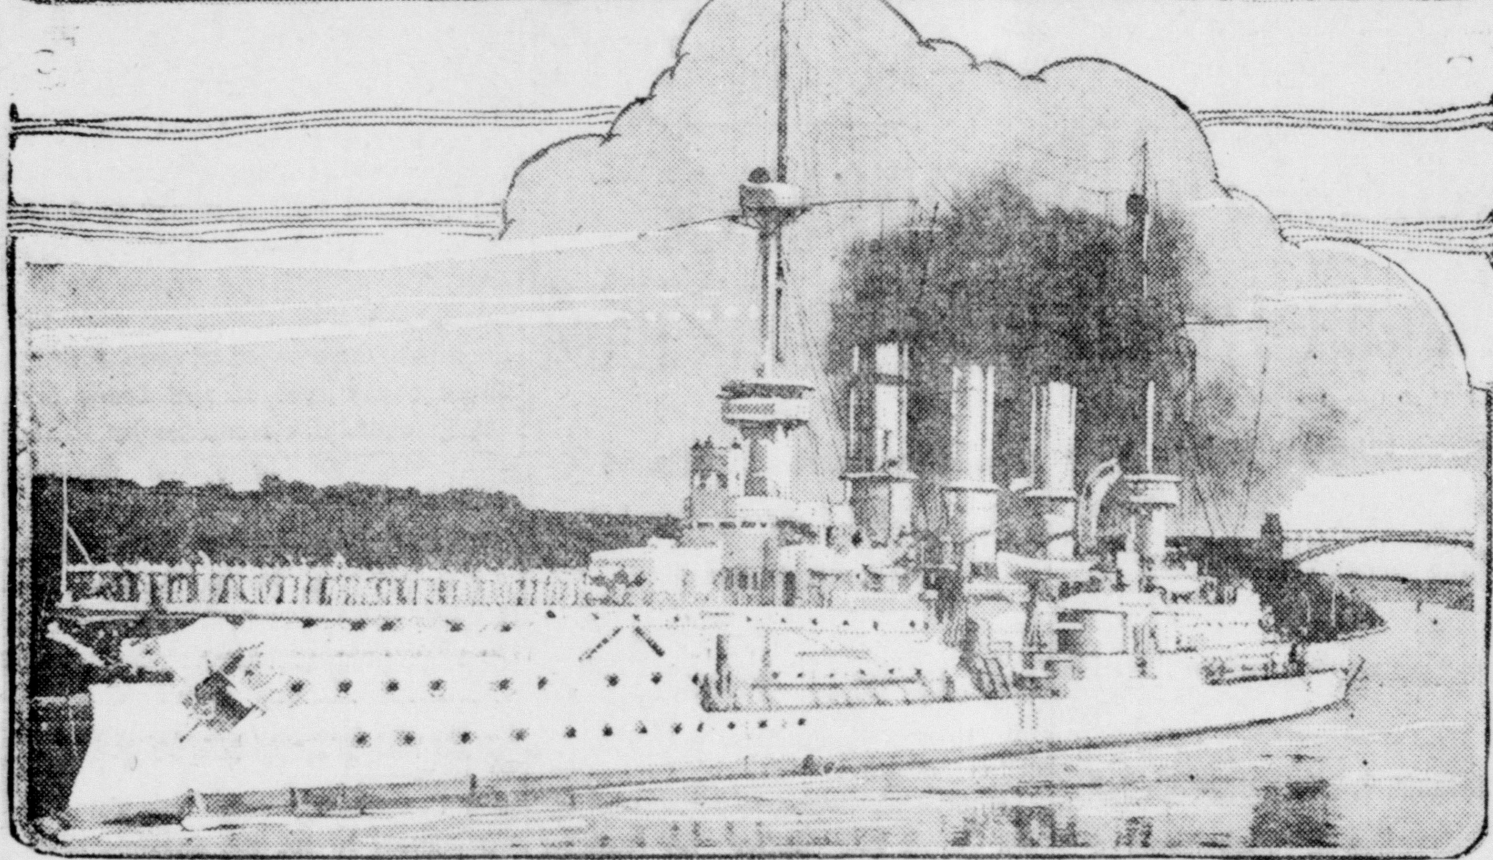

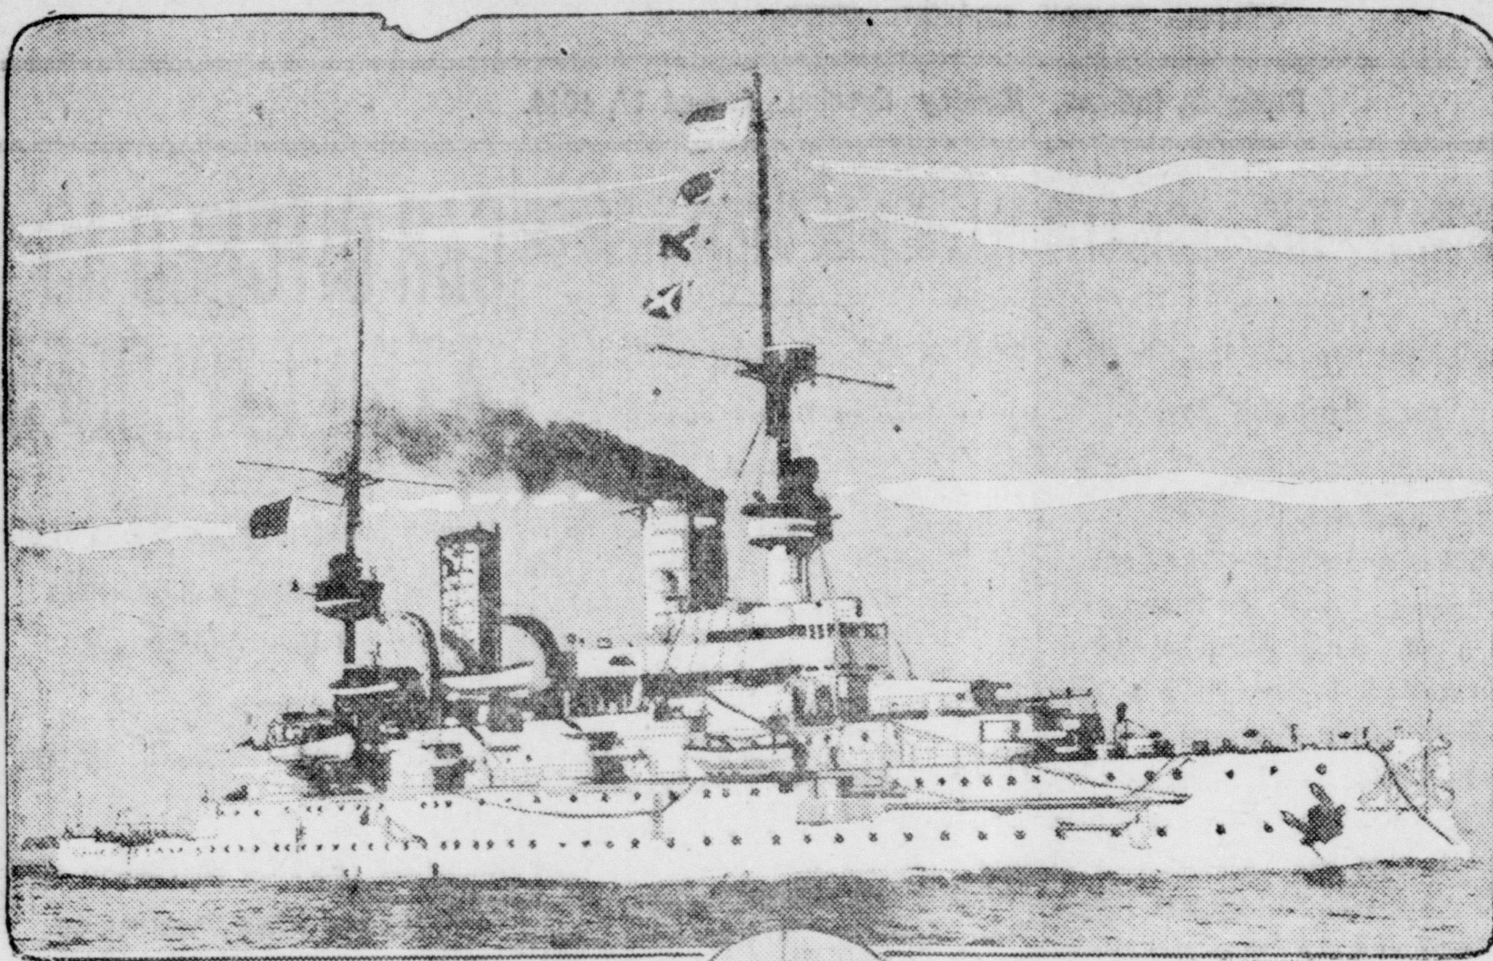

CAVALRY SCOUTS ARE ACTIVE

Reports From Amsterdam Says Kaiser Has Started for Front With Entire General Staff.

(By United Press.)

Brussels, Aug. 17.—There was a halt in the forward movement of the German army today. Its infantry remained in position along an irregular line that covered the entire eastern Belgian frontier. Its cavalry scouts were active but only in an attempt to develop the lines of the allies. The admission, however, that the German line has pushed forward to Dinant, fifteen miles south of Namur is accepted as significant. The German force are about to strike and to strike hard in an effort to clear the way for an advance into France at Lille, at Maubeuge and at Mezeres. The offensive movement may come at any moment. At noon today the war office insisted there had been no general attack and the air scouts reported the enemy maintaining its advanced position. The strength of the army now in German Warships Expected to Give English Fight of the Century In North Sea Waters.

Photos by American Press Association.

Germany has the second largest navy in the world, England being first. If Germany can hold her own on the water her friends figure that she will defeat France on land and then turn her attention to Russia. This seems to be the ambitious plan of the kaiser. Here are illustrated two of the German warships, the Kaiser Frederick III. at the top and the Frederick Carl at bottom. They belong to the older ships in the navy on which the gunners are seasoned experts. These ships, though not as dangerous as the mighty later types, are expected to give a good account of themselves in the North sea.

force along all eastern Belgium is very great. It comprises the army of the Meuse whose front has sustained a severe check; the first army of the Moselle which operated through Luxemburg and in the Northern part of Belgium Luxemburg and the second army of the Moselle, which has moved directly west from Luxemburg. It is believed here it is the first army of the Moselle which has taken position near Dinant. In this connection it is reported Austrian troops are now operating with the German army that is in Belgium. Reports reaching her from Amsterdam today declared the kaiser had started for the front and that he was enroute to Mainz accompanied by the entire general staff. If he has actually gone there it is to be in position to direct the movements of the entire army as at Mainz he would be about at the center of the line of forces along the Belgian and French frontiers.

NOMINATE FULL TOWNSHIP TICKET

Republicans of Anderson Hold Convention Saturday Afternoon and Good Crowd Attends.

The Republicans of Anderson township held a convention Saturday afternoon in the Milroy school house and nominated a complete township ticket. A large crowd was in attendance and while there were no contests, great interest was taken in the convention. The following is the ticket: Frank McCorkle, trustee; William Campbell, assessor; Ed Harcourt, Dora Jackman and W. L. McKee, members of the advisory board; Henry Davis, justice of peace; Abe Lyons, Jake Brown, Jay Tompkins and Joseph Aldridge, road supervisors.

Several short talks were made and the convention was said to have been the best held in Milroy for some time.

6,000 CHILDREN ARE FED DAILY

Belgian Government is Caring for Them in City of Brussels by Distributing at Schools

WOMEN DOING THEIR SHARE

Provide Soldiers in Field With Little Comforts—English Woman Plays a Big Part

(By United Press.)

Brussels, Aug. 17.—Six thousand school children are being fed daily in Brussels by the Government. Soup is distributed to all schools from a central station and within a short time it is expected that the number being fed will be increased to 10,000. Mme. Vanderveide, English wife of the Belgian Socialist minister, is one of the workers in the relief work being carried on by the women of Belgium. She makes a daily trip through the various relief stations and directs much of the work. The soup being served to the school children is made of meat and vegetables donated by tradesmen. One of the schools has been turned into a government store. There flour and all other supplies may be purchased by the poor at reasonable prices. Later if conditions become acute, no charge will be made. Each soldier's wife receives from the government fifteen cents and ten cents additional for each child.

The women of Belgium are doing everything possible to provide the soldiers in the field with little comforts.

Mme. Vanderveide made a trip toward the frontier in an automobile with her husband, taking with her several hundred red silk handkerchiefs which were given to soldiers because they had nothing to protect the back of their necks from the sun. On the way back to Brussels, their car was fired on, but the minister and his wife escaped, uninjured.

BRINGS SUITS FOR $2,000 DAMAGES

Three Persons Charged With Conspiracy to Murder Catherine Winters, File Action at Newcastle.

AGAINST DETECTIVE AGENCY

Newcastle, Ind., August 17.—The long expected action of Dr. W. A. Winters against Louis Wein detective agency at Indianapolis, for damages because of his arrest on serious charges came Saturday when suit was filed by Barnard & Brown for $2,000 against the detective agency and its bondsmen, the Aetna Liability and Accident company. Similar suits for a like amount were filed by Mrs. Winters and William Ross H. Cooper.

All three of the suits grew out of the arrest of the three in this city, May 30, when they were charged with conspiring to murder and burn the body of Catherine Winters, the nine-year-old daughter of Dr. Winters. Cooper failed to furnish bond and was in jail about forty-eight hours and Dr. and Mrs. Winters were held in police headquarters for several hours while obtaining bond.

Robert H. Abel, the detective who filed the charge, was connected with the Wein agency at Indianapolis, and all three of the local plaintiff claim that it was a malicious prosecution and that the Wein agency caused their arrest and detention.

There is nothing much more insidious in the whole net of habit that is always being wound about us than the growing claims of certain pieces of furniture to be used in certain ways. I do not mean to advocate a state of daily instability in one's surroundings, where nothing has a place of its own and you can never find a buffet or a coalbox when you want it. Still, to allow summer and winter to go by without any proper recognition within the house beyond stuffing a painted fan in the fireplace and sticking up a few muslin curtains is simply miserable.—London News.

Crepe makes such serviceable dresses and waists for summer, as it is cool and is easily washed out over night. For one who is traveling or camping, a few waists of this material is indispensable. Embroidered crepe is exceptionally pretty combined with the plain, and these two designs, shown here, are particularly suitable for embroidering waists and dresses of this type, as the motifs may be cut apart and scattered over the surface. They also may be used as borders on suits and evening wraps. White or colored mercerized cotton may be used for developing these designs in solid work and out-line-stitch.

The conventional pine-cone border, 14600, is 2 1/4 inches wide, and there are 3 yards in the pattern for 10 cents. Seventeen Chinese motifs, each 5 by 3 1/2 inches are in pattern 14620, for 15 cents.

IT IS OFTEN AN ODDLY CUT COLLAR THAT GIVES TONE TO A FROCK

The low-cut bodice and blouse for general wear still continues in favor; at one of the smart out-of-door events a few days ago some of the dresses were cut so low that they could easily have served for evening gowns. Narrow black velvet and malines neck ruches are worn with these open throats, and a pretty notion is to close them in front with a rose or two.

One of those odd notes that make for smartness is to pin the corsage bouquet, which generally consists of a single rose, high over the left shoulder or low on the skirt instead of tucking it in to the belt as in seasons past.

The afternoon costume illustrated in 8370-8366, has a ragain blouse with one of the new flaring Japanese collars; it is developed in very dark blue taffetas and worn with a skirt of Roman striped serge. To make this frock in size 36, 3 3/4 yards of 36-inch material is required for the blouse (8370) and 3 3/4 yards of the same width for the skirt (8366).

The child's figure shows a girl's suspender dress with elbow sleeves and a flounced skirt. A checked novelty goods is used, worn over a blouse of white pongee. For a child of 8, 2 3/4 yards of 36-inch material is needed for this design.

Change in Plans

Recent sensational developments regarding the disgraceful management of the last Indiana Democratic legislature may cause the drivers of the Crawford Fairbanks-Tom Taggart Democratic political machine to change their plans regarding the "speaking campaign" that is to be conducted throughout the state this fall in behalf of the state ticket that was chosen as the result of the activities of the Fairbanks-Taggart organization. It had been the plan for months to have Governor Ralston deliver the "keynote" speech of the campaign at some point out in the state. It is understood that the Democratic managers are now wondering whether it would be safe to allow Ralston to go on the stump.

Just stop a minute and speculate as to how ticklish is this proposition. Just about the time Ralston would get up to speak some inquisitive individual might ask him how it happened that bills that were never passed by the last Democratic legislature found their way into the statute books and why there were so many serious mistakes in the printed journal of the proceedings of the last House.

It is said that Ralston's friend are worried over the embarrassing situation in which he finds himself as a result of the revelations regarding the last legislature. Some time ago, in a public statement, he said that he would do what he could to send the responsible "consummate scoundrels" to the penitentiary if he could locate them. To date he has not located them and nothing has been offered in evidence that he is making any serious effort to locate the individuals responsible for the state's disgrace.

For the same reason, the Democratic brewery organization is wondering whether it would not be wise to keep Homer L. Cook, Democratic candidate for secretary of state off of the stump and out of the active campaign. Cook, as speaker of the last Indiana House, is supposed to have been in close touch with the working of the body but to date he has not explained how it came to happen that bills that were postponed by the House finally found their way into the records as laws of the state. Cook has remained silent in the face of damaging revelations but political observers figure that unless he resigns from the Democratic state ticket he will be forced before many days to make some sort of statement regarding the errors in the public records which were committed to his care.

Reports coming into Indianapolis from every section of the state indicate that the facts that have been uncovered regarding the last legislature have aroused the taxpayers of the state as they have not been aroused in years.

The situation in which the Democratic leaders find themselves at the present time is highly amusing to members of the Republican state organization who are hearing something of the drift towards the Republican ticket because of the reckless and disgraceful conduct of the state's affairs by Democratic administrations.

Ohio Primary Vote, According to Estimate, is Higher Than Progressives and Democrats.

COMPARED WITH 1912 VOTE

Defeated Democratic Candidate For Nomination Predicts Republican Victory in Ohio.

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 17.—It is estimated that the total vote in the recent Ohio primary was as follows:
Republicans ----- 210,000
Democrats ----- 170,000
Progressives ----- 9,500

The vote in Ohio at the 1912 election was: Democrats, 423,152; Republicans, 277,066; Progressives 229,239.

The distinctive feature of the primary was the practical disappearance of the Progressive party. The total Bull Moose vote was but slightly in excess of the number of names on the petitions filed by the party's candidates for nominations. In Hamilton county, containing the city of Cincinnati, where close to 100,000 voters were registered, only 223 Progressive votes were cast.

Congressman John J. Whitacre, unsuccessful candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, today predicted that the Republicans would carry Ohio in November by an old time plurality. In the course of his formal statement this Democratic leader said:

"The Bull Moose party is absolutely done for in Ohio. I do not mean to say that the candidates for Gov. and Senator will not get some votes, but the number will be negligible."

Max VanOsdol Displays Presence of Mind When Hit by Automobile Sunday.

HIS BYCYCLE DEMOLISHED

Max VanOsdol, son of Dr. and Mrs. D. D. VanOsdol, had a close call from being injured yesterday afternoon when the bicycle he was riding was hit by an automobile driven by Mrs. Earl Winship. The accident occurred at the corner of Third and Main streets. Young VanOsdol did not see the machine coming in time to avoid being hit and saved himself grabbing hold of the front fender.

The bicycle went under the front wheels of the auto but he escaped injury by holding on to the fender until the machine was stopped. The auto was not running fast, according to witnesses. Mrs. Winship was so unstrung by the accident that she could not drive the car afterwards.

A servant who was a British subject was held for a short time.

Rushville, Ind.

WILL REGISTER
JUST 1 DAY HERE

Time for Petitioning for September Registration Passed Saturday According to Law.

RUSH COUNTY IS NOT ALONE

Two-Thirds of the Counties in the State Pursue the Same Course. Remember October 5.

Now that the last chance, according to the state law, has passed for filing a petition for a September registration voters, it is settled that there will be but one registration in Rush county this year. That comes October 5 and mandatory.

None of the political parties represented in the county wanted a special registration. At any rate none of them circulated a petition for one. It is said that some of the local democratic leaders favored a September registration, but were deterred from starting a movement for it because of the expense. It is well known that the Democracy throughout Indiana is greatly embarrassed by the increased tax burden that has resulted from the party's extravagant administration. As a consequence of this, even those democratic leaders who felt it would be to the party's advantage to have a special registration have been reluctant to ask for it, feeling that to do so would invite further charges of needless expenditure of the people's money.

Rush county will have plenty of company in holding aloof from a special registration. More than two-thirds of the counties in the state took the same course. Only twenty-three out of the ninety-two counties had reported petitions for a special registration field.

The counties that have reported petitions are, Allen, Cass, Dearborn, Dubois, Elkhart, Fayette Fountain, Gibson, Huntington, Jennings, Knox, Lake, Laporte, Lawrence, Madison, Marion, Miami, Pulaski, Randolph, Switzerland, Tippecanoe, Vanderburg and White. It will be noticed that there is but one county in the Ninth congressional district in the list—Fountain. In all the counties named the registration was petitioned for by the democratic organization.

The counties in which special registrations will be held contain most of the larger cities of the state. The notable exceptions are Wayne, containing Richmond, St. Joseph, containing South Bend, and Vigo, containing Terre Haute. The counties with petitions already on file take in the cities of Fort Wayne, Logansport, Lafayette, Lawrenceburg, Evansville, Elkhart, Connersville, Goshen, Princeton, Huntington, Vincennes, Hammond, East Chicago, Whiting, Gary, Laporte, Alexandria, Elwood, Indianapolis, Peru, Winchester and Union City.

The section of the registration law that fixes the time for the holding the regular or October session is as follows: "The registration board of each voting precinct of this state shall hold in such precinct a session each year in which a general election will occur. Such session shall be held on Monday, the 29th day before such election, and shall be designated the regular session of the board."

The election this year falls on Tuesday Nov. 3. That being the day and date for the election, the day and date for the registration will be Monday, October 5. The time for the registration should be borne in mind by every voter. No man can vote unless he has registered, and there will be but the one chance to register.

The law provides that a registration board may, when requested in writing by ten voters of the precinct, three of whom are freeholders, remain in session one or two days after the one day designated. It is unlikely that there will be many petitions of that kind filed in Rush county, as to do so would mean to incur extra expense, and that, it seems, is a thing all parties are bent on keeping away from. The safe course for every Rush county voter is to arrange to register on Monday, October 5, and take no chances.

INDIANA HORSE SHOW
GROWING IN QUALITY

State Fair Night Feature Includes Natiello's Great Band.

With the richest prizes it has ever offered, amounting to $5,984, and with a national reputation among owners of the fanciest stock, the Indiana State Fair night horse shows during the week of Sept. 7, will be on a more spectacular and dazzling scale than at any time in their history. Among light harness and saddle horse owners the Indiana Fair has won first rank not only because of the generous prizes, but because of a superior coliseum and barn facilities for showing their stock, and there is further incentive to exhibit at the Indiana Fair because of the public appreciation bestowed on these night shows. While this department of the Fair has been increasing in its wealth of horses, the attendance has been annually growing until the night shows now are better than at any time in their history and are annually expanding in quality and in public attention.

The best show stables of the country will be represented in the State Fair arena, musical programs of high order will be given, and the parade of horses and cattle, a lavish feature which rivals the greatest live stock shows of the continent, will combine in making the coming night shows of unusual splendor. Contests of roadsters, runabouts, carriage pairs of high steppers, tandem, four-in-hand and business teams, the prizes for which amount to $2,605; events for five- and three-gaited saddle horses, high school and other fancy steppers, with prizes amounting to $1,925; more than $1,000 in prizes for ponies; contests for men and women equestrians, assure a horse show program each evening of wide variety.

One of the choicest pleasures of these evening displays will be the concerts by Natiello's band of forty-five men, with a number of famous instrumental soloists, and a feature of the band concerts will be the singing by the Natiello quartet.

The Indiana State Fair will be prolific in amusements of many kinds during the week of Sept. 7, chief among these attractions being the vaudeville bill that will each afternoon be given before the grandstand during the races, the variety being greater than heretofore offered. One of these stellar attractions will be the Royal Namba Japanese troupe of acrobats in contortions, perch balancing, equilibristics, head-walking and foot-juggling. The Menean troupe of society acrobats will perform wonderful feats of ground tumbling. The Flying Devals will give a comedy casting act, including double back somersaults, twisting double somersaults from catcher to catcher, and a series of comical acrobatics on a bounding trampoline. Differing greatly from all of these will be the Forbes-Cameron troupe of Scotch bagpipers and dancers, who in Highland costume will give flings, reels, figs and Irish dances.

The State Fair "midway" will again overflow with entertainment in the form of carnival shows of many kinds.

The official management of the fair will be in the hands of the following: President of the Indiana state board of agriculture, Clem Graves, of Bunker Hill; vice-president, Warren T. McCray, Kentland; secretary and treasurer, Charles Downing, Greensburg; department superintendents, admissions, Charles W. Hickman, Lafayette; grandstand, Cornelius O'Brien, Lawrenceburg; speed, Charles H. Anthony, Muncie; horses, Warren T. McCray; cattle, Oscar Hadley, Indianapolis; sheep, John L. Thompson, Gas City; swine, Mason J. Niblack, Vincennes; poultry, John Isenberger, North Manchester; art, Samuel F. Spohn, Goshen; horticulture, John C. Haines, Rockport; agriculture, L. B. Clore, Franklia; mechanical, Ed S. Tuell, Corydon; concessions, S. O. Dungan, Indianapolis; coliseum, Dan C. Reed, Attica; amusements, Knott Porter, Newcastle.

DECLINES TO MAKE RACE.

Another Progressive candidate declines to make the race. Charles W. Miller was nominated by the Bull Moose bosses as candidate for recorder of DeKalb county. He has resigned from the ticket.

ARCADIANS DROP EXCITING GAME

Heller Outpitches Werner But Poor Support Gives Connersville a 6 to 3 Victory.

THE BREAK COMES IN EIGHTH

Jinx Still Clings Despite Fact That Rushville Led Most of Way—Errors Prove Costly.

It was the same old story, only this time it is told in a little different way. That old Connersville jinx clings to the Arcadians and if they played ball for a hundred years Rushville would never win a game—not if they played like they did yesterday. The final score was 6 to 3 but the contest was much closer than this would show.

For seven innings the Arcadians looked like sure winners and led by a two to one score. Connersville tied it up in the sixth and forged ahead in the seventh and then in the eighth they made it appear one-sided. Heller pitched swell ball for Rushville and had a shade on Werner but his support was something awful. The Arcadians played very ragged ball and Heller could not do it all although he tried to and came close to succeeding. At the start of the game he pitched rings around Al Werner and if his mates had played as they should the score would have been very different.

With the kind of ball the Arcadians put up in the field it is a wonder Heller did as well as he did. Eight large errors and several bones behind Heller is what cost Rushville the game. Some of these eight errors were excusable but there was absolutely no excuse for a large part of them. Long at third base put up his poorest exhibition and acted like he was tied to the base. The team must have been saving all the bum ball it had for Connersville and got rid of it all in one lump.

At first the Rushville errors did not get Heller in very bad but they continued to come and at last it was too much. Heller pitched his head off and deserved to win. Three scattered hits for six innings was all that Connersville could get. Heller brought the crowd to its feet by a home run and a triple. His home run scored Rushville's first counter of the game. Werner was not in the form he was two weeks ago and the Arcadians pounded him hard in the early rounds.

Connersville started the scoring in the first inning and at the very start errors were responsible. Runyan walked, and took second when Badel let Heller's throw get away. Ruchstuhl was safe on Badel's error and Runyan came all the way home. Heisman was safe on Hasselback's error but was caught stealing. Maxwell struck out and Kieffel was out. Well struck out and Kieffel was Hasselback to Badel.

Rushville got to Werner right on the start, but after filling the bases was unable to connect with the ball. Stricker led off with a hit and stole second. Barton flew to Runyan. Badel was out, flied to Heisman. Long drew a base on balls and Sandman singled to left field. Fast fielding on the part of Connersville held Stricker on third base. With the bases full Hasselback was not there with the necessary hit and all three men died.

With two men down in the second Rushville got the one run led back from Connersville when Heller slammed one of Werner's curves to right center for a home run. It was one of the longest hits ever made on the local grounds. The Arcadians took the lead in the last of the third and it looked pretty good. Barton flew to O'Connell in right field. Badel doubled to left. Long flew to Swartz. Sandman was there with the good and singled to right field, scoring Badel. Sandman was caught at second trying to stretch his hit.

Both teams played good ball from this on until the sixth and seventh. It was an exciting game at this stage and the fans were pulling hard for a Rushville victory and the chances looked good. Connersville tied the score in the sixth. Maxwell led off with a single to left field. Kieffel flew out to Goodfellow. Schwartz was given a walk but was forced by O'Connell, Hasselback to Barton. On this play Barton in attempting to double O'Connell threw to Badel and Maxwell scored. If Barton had taken his time he had O'Connell a mile. Hart was out Long to Badel.

In the seventh Connersville took the lead, the first time since the opening inning. Werner struck out. Heller knocked down Runyan's pop-up but let the ball get away. Runyan stole second. Ruchstuhl was easy. Hasselback to Badel. Heisman singled to center field and was followed by Maxwell who placed one in the same place, scoring Runyan. Kieffel flew to Goodfellow.

The big blow off came in the eighth and it was here that Connersville put the game on ice. Schwartz was safe when Barton dropped Long's throw. Hart struck out and Werner followed suit. With two down Runyan was given a base on balls after Heller had two strikes on him. With the bases full and two down it was sure one exciting moment. Heller succeeded in getting two strikes on Ruchstuhl and then pulled off a funny one. He asked for a drink of water and passed the ball back and forth to Goodfellow while he downed the water. Two balls were called on Ruchstuhl and then he hit one to center field that should have gone for a single but the ball got away from Hellmund and when it stopped rolling Ruchstuhl was perched on third base and three runs had crossed the pan. Ruchstuhl tried to stretch the hit into a homer and was caught at the plate.

It was see-saw game until this inning and was one of the most exciting ever played here. Everything went against Rushville and the game was broken up at a time when Heller looked good to work out of a bad hole that his team mates had placed him in. To Heller belongs all the praise possible. He worked his head off for Rushville and besides his pitching connected for a homer and a triple. Rushville scored one in the eighth but the lead was too much to overcome after the fatal eighth.

It was a tough one to lose and the team hated it worse than the fans. The team again demonstrated that it can hit but simply had an off day in the field. Despite the score of 6 to 3 Rushville played Connersville to a standstill and the teams are more evenly matched that the score indicates.

Poston was sick yesterday and was forced to give up in the last of the third. Ed Pitman was called on and performed in fine shape. Pit did exceptionally well not to have worked for several years in a ball game.

Heller sure had it on Maxwell. Max struck out three times but at that succeeded in getting two hits.

The crowd was the largest of the season and was repaid for the trouble for the game was a good one until the eighth.

Stricker, the new outfielder did not show much at the bat, getting only one hit and that the first time up.

The Rushville infield could not get to working together and it was a fright the way the errors piled up. Hasselback played his usual swell game despite the fact that he had two errors.

In the seventh with Heller on third and only one out the crowd went wild in its rooting. But this did not worry Werner. He struck out Stricker and Barton grounded to Maxwell. It was a chance to tie the score and the crowd sure worked hard.

It seems impossible to beat Connersville. This is four times that Rushville has gone down in defeat. Twice for the new team and twice for the old one. The defeat yesterday was the first the new team has suffered on the home lot, which is not bad. The team was reorganized July 5 and yesterday was the first time it has lost at home.

EARLHAM GIVES UP PRESENT SYSTEM

Believed New Method of Coaching Should Prove More Successful in Future

H. E. WHITESIDE IS CHOSEN

(By United Press.)
Richmond, Ind., Aug. 17.—Earlham college, a member of the I. C. A. L. group of Indiana colleges, has forsaken for the present at least the graduate system of coaching. This system which was initiated so successfully under Coach Glenn Thistlewaite, was less popular under succeeding and less experienced men. Earlham athletics that had been developed to a high degree of proficiency and enthusiasm under the rough and ready tackle have been disappointing in the past few years. Thistlewaite graduated to become director of athletics at Oak Park High, where he has won high honors with football and other teams.

The new coach chosen to succeed Reagan of the class of 1912, is Horace E. Whiteside, a graduate from the Stagg school. Though Whiteside is a physical giant he believes that one of the chief qualifications for the game of football is a good supply of gray matter. In addition to his three years of experience on the Chicago University football team, he was the University's greatest heavyweight wrestler, and was a water-polo star. He has had two and one-half years of coaching experience.

Earlham students heard the announcement with enthusiasm, for it is the belief with that with a coach who inspires confidence the Quaker fighting spirit will place the college teams in the front rank again.

HOW TO FOIL HANS.

A group of White Sox were listening recently to Harry Sutor, the lefthander who pitched by theory. Sutor, never having seen Hans Wagner, was explaining how he would pitch to the Flying Dutchman.

"I'd drop two slow curves on the outside corner," he remarked. "He'd probably foul one. Then I'd shoot two high outside, wasting them. Then he'd expect me to come back with a slow twister on the out corner, and I'd cross him with a fast one."

Cole, an outfielder, who had been listening, turned suddenly, sprinted across the street and stood looking upward an instant. With hanging head and dejected air he strolled back.

"What's the matter?" asked Sutor. "What were you doing?"

"I was chasing that fast one you pitched to Wagner," replied Cole.

Pennant Breaks Down Again.
Harry Payne Whitney's great race horse Pennant has broken down again. Pennant worked a mile and a half in preparation for the Dorval Derby. He went the first mile and three-eighths at a fast pace and galloped the last eighth, pulling up apparently sound. It was after reaching his stable that it was said he failed to cool out.

GOES 30 MILES INTO BELGIUM

Germany's Reconnaissances Have More Than Half Way to Brussels, Belgian Capital.

NAMUR WELL FORTIFIED

Principle of Modern Warfare That Battles Are Won by Offensive and Not Defensive Moves.

(By United Press.)

New York, Aug. 17.—German's reconnaissances have now explored Belgian territory thirty miles into the interior from Liege, more than half way to Brussels. The curtain behind which the Kaiser's skirmishers in force have penetrated forms almost a perpendicular from north to south through Herethals, Aershot, Tihemont and Namur. The first three towns are important railway centers and Namur, guarding and allies' right, is probably by this time better fortified than Liege.

Brussels is twenty miles to the rear and about in the center of the line. Somewhere between Brussels and the Herenthals-Aershot-Tihemont-Namur curtain, the allies have concentrated their main Belgian forces while their outposts are trying to check the German efforts to discover the secret.

North and West of the Meuse and east of the Herenthals-Namur line is now practically frontier territory, except for the Liege forts. It seems probable the great battle, when it begins, will not be in this district unless some tactical error by the Germans causes the allies to leap forward on the offensive. Otherwise the field doubtless will be within twenty miles east of Brussels.

It is a principle of modern warfare that victories are won by offensive and not defensive movements. Never-the-less the allies cannot afford to attempt to turn the tables on Germany and change their defensive attitude in Belgium into an offensive one. The higher strategy must take into consideration, Russia's slow mobilization and the tremendous advantage of delaying Germany's west-ern advance.

The risk of a victory, of course, is greater than the risk of a drawn battle. The latter at this state of the war, would be almost as disastrous to Germany as a defeat, because the time given to the slow moving Slavs to draw their lines about the German eastern frontier. Thus, a defensive Belgian campaign for the moment is excellent strategy for the allies.

The news for Diest that the Standard of the Death's Head Hussars has been captured, confirms the report that the Russian frontier has been denuded of the first line fighters. The headquarters of the Death Head Hussars is Posen, one of the main centers of the defenses against Russia. The Death's Head Hussars is the favorite regiment. It has been given traditionally the motto: "Never take prisoners."

released after serving a sentence of one year for making an anti-militarist speech. He has issued an appeal to all members of the party to rush to the colors and to aid in saving the fatherland.

There has not been an anti-war socialist demonstration in any part of Berlin since three days before the declaration of war. It was not until then that the Socialists realized that war was inevitable. Since then they have accepted the outcome and have loyally rallied to the aid of their country. This last demonstration, however, was broken up by the police. The mounted officers charged the French Troops Prepared For Years To Fight Against German Invasion.

Photos by American Press Association.

For forty years the French people had waited to attempt to wipe out the old scores of the Franco-Prussian war; therefore when the general European war broke out the French army was ready to render an accounting. It was mobilized quickly and sent to the frontier to battle with the advancing Germans. General Joseph Joffre, commander in chief of the army, was in command. He is shown with his aids in the bottom picture as he looked in the field during recent maneuvers. The upper picture shows French troops at rest during a march.

crowds without regard for any one. My foot was severely crushed by being trampled by a police horse.

Another story given circulation is that Ambassador Gerard has attended meetings held to celebrate German victories. This is without foundation. The American ambassador has taken absolutely no part in happenings of a political nature. He and Mrs. Gerard have been working eighteen hours a day caring for the Americans who are in Germany and who so far, have been unable to get out of the country. The only complaint the Ambassador has made has been directed against other nations than Germany. His cablegrams to Washington which he sent via Stockholm, have been interfered with after crossing the German frontier and he has made vigorous representations to Secretary Bryan because of this. The ambassador is not alone taking care of his own nations but also of those of Great Britain, France and Russia. He has received perfect cooperation from the German government and from the municipality of Berlin.

So well has Chief Burgomeister Wermuth co-operated with the Ambassador and personally aided him in securing quarters for those in distress, that Mr. Gerard visited him in person last Tuesday and officially thanked him on behalf of the United States government.

There has been no mistreatment of Americans with the exception of the night of August fourth when Germans generally came to a realization that England, after all, was hostile. That night there were a number of serious anti-British riots which caught the authorities unawares. A number of Americans who were in the streets, mingling with the crowds, were mistaken for English and were mobbed. I was caught in one of the demonstrations and after being mauled more or less, was arrested as a British spy. The moment word was sent to the American embassy, Secretaries Grew and Harvey rushed across to the foreign office and demanded an explanation. Assistant Foreign Secretary Zimmerman was dumbfounded. He was absolutely without knowledge of the arrest. He immediately called the police who released me and apologized profusely for the mistake.

Assistant Foreign Secretary Zimmerman also ordered the release of all other Americans arrested by mistake and later, when Ambassador Gerard interfered in behalf of certain Englishmen who had been arrested they also were turned loose. Most of the arrests were largely due to the indiscretions of the victims. One American taken into custody was the correspondent of a London daily which is especially hated by the Germans. However, everything has now quieted down and no foreigners are in the slightest danger so long as they remain in the quarters assigned to them and do not seek to pry into military affairs.

There are 6,000 Americans in the city and all wear pinned to their breasts small American flags. The scenes at the embassy in the few days immediately after the declaration of hostilities was stirring. Enormous crowds and British besieged the building endeavoring to register. Every attaches of the embassy assisted by a score of volunteers hastily pressed into service, was put to work. Lines were formed extending far down the street and the work of registration was hurried as much as possible.

Officials from the war office explained to Ambassador Gerard that they could not aid him in getting his nationals out of Germany until the mobilization was complete because of the necessity of the government commandeering the railroads. But they promised trains—and steamers if the warring nations would guarantee safe conduct—so soon as the troops had been conveyed to their stations. As soon as the mobilization was completed on Thursday they furnished a special train on which the first installment of Americans was sent to a neutral port. They also promised that other special trains would be put at the disposal of the ambassador as soon as possible. Now as to how Berlin accepted the war, and the scenes in Berlin are typical of what has happened in every German city. There has been no wild excitement. The wave of patriotism that swept the country affecting all classes did not result in any one deceiving themselves as to the terrible task confronting the fatherland. There were street parades of course but they were quiet affairs, and the emperor in person addressed some of the crowds from the balcony of the palace. The spirit of the people is one of quiet determination. The National colors are shown from every flagstaff and from every house. Men and women alike wear small flags on their breasts.

The news from the front is meagre. Only the brief bulletins issued by the General staff which refer in terse language to movements, and the lists of the verified casualties are published. Only after names and residences are verified, are the lists of those slain published and this is naturally a slow procedure. Big crowds hang around the various public places where the bulletins are posted waiting—silently waiting—for the word from the front that may mean so much to them.

Naturally there is a preponderance of women in the streets. But the heart-wrenching development is the rapid increase of the women wearing deep mourning. Where a week ago bright colors predominated now hundreds of the women are in deep black. They are of all ages from the aged gray-haired housefrau to the fraulein of tender years. As they meet they try vainly to comfort each other while those who are still hoping their loved ones are to be spared watch them in white faced wonder, realizing full well that the next official list may contain the name of some one dear to them.

It has been suggested that the women cease wearing mourning as an outward symbol of sorrow. Leading Berlin women have taken up the suggestion and it is now being considered.

The general staff is in constant touch with the front. There is no evidence of discouragement. True, the resistance of Belgium had been under-estimated. But the German army is now in action and the General forward movement is declared to be in progress along the lines originally laid down.

There is absolutely no news from the fleet. Rumors of action have been circulated, but up to the present, none is confirmed and the general staff declines comment on them.

AMERICANS STILL POUR INTO PARIS

Most of Them Come from Switzerland and Provinces and Register at American Embassy

STEAMSHIP LANE IS CLEAR

(By United Press.)

Paris, Aug. 17.—Americans are still pouring into Paris from Switzerland and the provinces and registering at the American embassy. After a weeks' delay the French liners France and Chicago have finally cleared from Havre.

Most of the 2,000 Americans on the vessels remained aboard throughout the week and set up a wild cheer when sailing orders were received yesterday. The order for these ships to leave is taken as an indication that the Government has been advised that the steamship lane to New York is now clear of German warships.

Americans arriving here today travelled in freight cars. One train load from Geneva changed trains fourteen times during the trip to Paris.

New York, Aug. 17.—Crowded to the very rails and with millionaires and near-millionaires in the steerage, the liner Celtic arrived here Saturday from Liverpool with 1,566 American refugees aboard. The Celtic had an uneventful voyage, but every passenger had a story to tell of baggage lost on the continent; going hungry with pockets bulging with money; or inconveniences of the voyage on the crowded ship.

PREMIUM LIST IS COMPLETED

Up to Growers Now to Make Indiana Apple Show the Best Exhibit East of Mountains

PRODUCTS IN ONE CLASS

Cash Prizes Total More Than in Previous Years and Medals Will be Given Also

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, August 17.—Indiana is at war. The fighting forces are the apple growers and the objective is to demonstrate the superiority of Indiana apples over those grown in other states and to extend the trade so that the Hoosier product will feed the largest possible number of apple eaters. This war is of supreme importance in the opinion of Benjamin W. Douglass of Trevlac, who is superintending the forthcoming appleshow. Ammunition in the form of hundreds of varieties of apples will be displayed in the Indiana apple show in this city November 18-24.

Mr. Douglass today gave the United Press the first copy of the preliminary premium list off the press. It states that "no other states east of the mountains has anything to compare with our apple show and nothing to compare with our premium list," and adds, "It is simply up to the growers now to select their very best fruit and make the show a howling success."

One toothsome exhibit that promises this year to attract much more competition than formerly is the one managed by Mrs. C. N. Lindley of Salem. It is Class XI, Apple Products. In that class will be seen the best of Hoosier cookery. There will be apple pie, Dutch apple pie, apple cake, apply jelly, crab apple jelly, apple reserve apple butter, apple pickels, apple relish, apple marmalade, candied apples and cider vinegar.

Cash prizes will total more than in previous years. In most respects the list of premiums is identical with that of last year. The essay contest has been eliminated because it was not found to be of enough value to justify its continuation. In many instances medals have been offered in place of ribbons. This is true of the sweepstakes.

For the best exhibit from an individual orchard prizes valued at several hundred dollars will be offered in three parts. Gold and silver medals will be given in Class II, public institutions; for Home Orchards, there will be three prizes totaling over $100; for the artistic exhibits there will be two cash prizes of $75 and $50, and the class will be open to all. For window displays $50 and $25 prizes offered. This class is for Indianapolis merchants. Indiana apples must be used. In addition to these there is a long list of 5-box, 25-box, one-box and tray exhibits with prizes of $15, $35, $10, and $5 respectively and commensurate second prizes.

The committee in charge issues the following statement:

"There has been no standard size decided upon for apples of the various varieties. Last year there was some talk of this and a committee was appointed to investigate the other states was collected, but this information was of such a nature that it appeared to be practically an impossible matter to decide on any standard of size for show fruit.

"In the past some of the exhibitors have been surprised at being shut out of the prize class because the judge had discriminated against large apples. This season large apples will not be discriminated against, but large size will also not serve to give an apple preference over medium sizes. Apples that are small for the variety are not to be encouraged, as they are not desirable on the market and certainly are not show apples.

"This general sentiment in regard to large sizes as stated here will be imported to the judge and he will be expected to be governed accordingly regardless of what are his preconceived ideas in the matter.

KING ALBERT IS VERY POPULAR MAN

Ruler of Belgium Mingles Among His Men on the Field Escorted Only by an Aide

WEARS SIMPLE BLUE UNIFORM

(By United Press.)

Brussels, Aug. 17.—Always popular, King Albert of Belgium is now the idol of the people. Clad in a simple blue uniform bearing no insignia of his exalted rank, he moves from place to place at the front in a high powered automobile. His chauffeur and a single aide are his only escort. Few excepting the high officers recognize him. Others accept him as a companion and give him field rations and water as he requested them in a spirit of simple comradeship. But the news of his movements is spreading and now all soldiers are watching for his coming.

Saturday he tried to enter the field hospital at the front. The sentry demanded the needed special pass. He said he had none but that as the King, he believed he could enter. It required strenuous aide to get the sentry to consent.

When held up by the sentries he displayed his military pass. It is the same as all others with this exception. Under the caption "Occupation" appears this sentence: "King of the Belgians."

NATIVE OF COUNTY DIES AT BAY VIEW

Miss Sallie Humes, Formerly of Richland Township, Expires Sunday While on Outing.

SISTER OF THOMAS HUMES

Miss Sallie Humes, age fifty-nine years, a sister of Thomas Humes, county commissioner, and John C. Humes of New Salem, died yesterday at Bay View, Mich., where she was on an outing with Mr. and Mrs. Will Wade and family, with whom she has lived with for seven or eight years. Miss Humes was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, June 3, 1855, but came to Rush county when a child with her parents and was reared in the vicinity of Richland.

Miss Humes has been in poor health for a number of years. Her death was due to a complication of diseases. When her parents died a number of years ago, she took up her residence with an older sister, Mrs. Sam Patton. After her death, Miss Humes made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Will Wade of Indianapolis. The body will arrive here tomorrow morning and will be taken directly to East Hill chapel and placed in a vault. The funeral services will be held in the chapel at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. E. P. Jewett of Indianapolis, former pastor at Richland.

NO WORD RECEIVED FROM TOURISTS YET

Their Itinerary Called For Their Arrival in London Today and For Sailing Saturday.

UNLIKELY THEY FOLLOWED IT

No news was received today of the whereabouts of Miss Henrietta Coleman and her party, of tourists who are believed to be some place in the European war zone. Day by day relatives and friends of the girls in the party have expected some word from them, but not a line has been received since the first declaration of war was made July 28.

The itinerary which they were to follow calls for their arrival in London today, but it is doubtful whether they have been able to follow it because of the disturbed conditions on the continent. If, by the rarest chance, they have been able to make their trip on schedule, they will sail from Liverpool for New York next Saturday. Some persons are disposed to believe that the girls are making their trip without interruption, but by others this is not considered very probable.

AUSTRIANS AND SERBS IN BATTLE

What is Reported to be Biggest Battle in Which Servians Have Participated is in Progress.

LOSSES ON BOTH SIDES HEAVY

(By United Press.) Rome, August 17.—A correspondent of a newspaper at Nish wires that the biggest battle of the war so far as Serbia is concerned is now in progress near Belgrade. The correspondent says that 50,000 Austrians attacked four Serbian army corps on Sunday and that the battle was still in progress today. The losses have been very heavy on both sides but the Servians claim an advantage.

Belgrade is still being bombarded by the Austrian's heavy guns and a good portion of the city is in ruins.

FIREWORKS WILL BE PRETENTIOUS

Secretary Thomas Announces Attraction For Wednesday Night of Fair—Emma Kimmel Judge.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR RALSTON

J. Q. Thomas, secretary of the Rush county fair board, has received a description of the fireworks display to be given on Wednesday night of the fair. The exhibition is said to be by very pretentious and will take place in front of the grand stand. The display is in fifteen numbers and some of the features are set pieces showing the Horse Shoe falls, the Garden of Allah and the Bombardment of Vera Cruz. To the display has been added several numbers and one includes a large American flag. The fire works promises to surpass anything of the kind ever attempted here.

Arrangements have been completed for the entertainment of Governor Ralston while at the fair on Tuesday. The governor and party will take dinner with the church people at their dining hall and will then hold an informal reception committee. His address will be at one-thirty o'clock and will be followed by a review of the stock parade, fox chase and ball game.

Miss Emma Kimmel of Lawrenceburg has been selected for judge in the women's department.

PLAYGROUND BOYS WIN.

The Playground Stars, a baseball team organized since the public playground was opened, Saturday afternoon defeated the Milroy Reds, a boys team, 6 to 4, on the ball field on the new playground. It was an interesting game.

Charles Applegate, of Portland, Ore., formerly of this city, was here this morning making arrangements to bring his cracker-jack and candy outfit to the Rush county fair. Mr. Applegate will be located in his usual place at the northwest corner of floral hall. He has improved his stand and this year has one of the best outfits to be seen. He is at Connersville this week.
